The Nuntius Staff
Altavista High School
Altavista, Virginia

Foreword

"Here today, gone tomorrow" or
"Time marches on" are expressions which appropriately pertain to our school days. Each hour that we spend at school is a fleeting moment. Nevertheless, these hours are precious ones--hours spent with friends, hours spent in reaping the rewards of earnest study and in facing the disappointments of failure.

In order that our moments at Altavista High School might not be completely lost, we, the Senior Class of 1963, would like to take you, the teachers and students, on a journey through the year we spent as the fiftieth graduating class of Altavista High School. Your excellent participation in all phases of our school life has made this a wonderful, never-to-be-forgotten year for the "golden" graduating class. With the hope that you will never forget the 1962-63 session at Altavista High School, we proudly present to you the events of

We Begin Our Journey Through Altavista High School

*We Dedicate the Golden Edition of
The Nuntius
To You . . .*

. . . our friend, helpmate, and principal, MR. FRANK P. CLINE.

Through our last five years we have recognized your sincere devotion to us and your earnest effort to make our school a place which we are proud to attend. We thank you now as seniors but most important we will thank you as adults for your guidance and help. Thus we dedi-

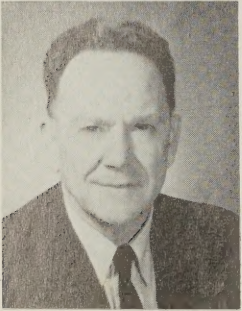

Faculty

The time that we spend in being instructed by our teachers has made this a golden year in our education, for we have been given a golden opportunity to learn. We shall always remember the invaluable lessons that we have learned from these experienced leaders, and the knowledge that we have gathered during this session at Altavista High School will be our guide in the years to come.

Classes

The fellowship with the members of the student body has caused this year to be unforgettable. Each individual with whom we have associated has added to the joy of our school life. Time marches on, but the friendships we have made at Altavista High School remain.

Senior Class

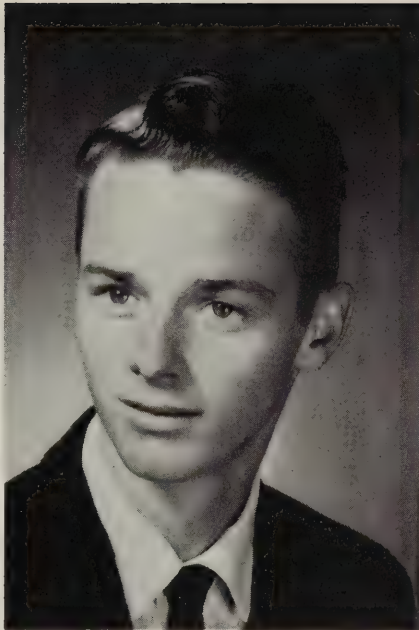

PRESIDENT: Bill Owens
SECRETARY: Margaret Ferguson
TREASURER: Gail Robertson
VICE PRESIDENT: Richard Shumate

The Senior Class has had many worthwhile projects this year. The achievement for which the Class of '63 is most proud is the initiation of a fund to purchase a new basketball scoreboard. The class started this fund with a donation of one hundred dollars to which the other student body organizations contributed.

The class members received their class rings at the Ring Dance in September. Other events enjoyed by the Seniors were the Senior Banquet and Class Night.

Sophomore Class

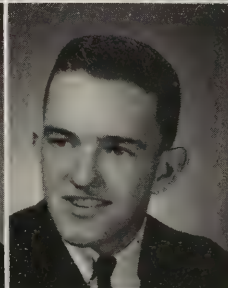

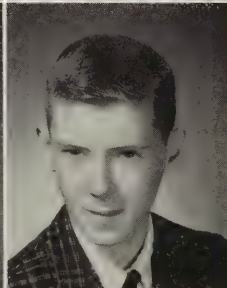

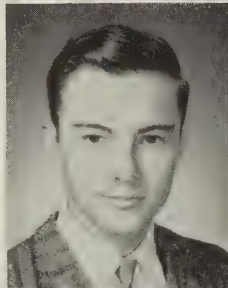

The Sophomore Class was full of zest,
We always tried to do our best.
Our first-place float was a start,
Thanksgiving basket was second part.
We sold candy for the prom,
March 8th, our dance helped us along.
Future plans we will not tell
But for our class it's going well.

Organizations

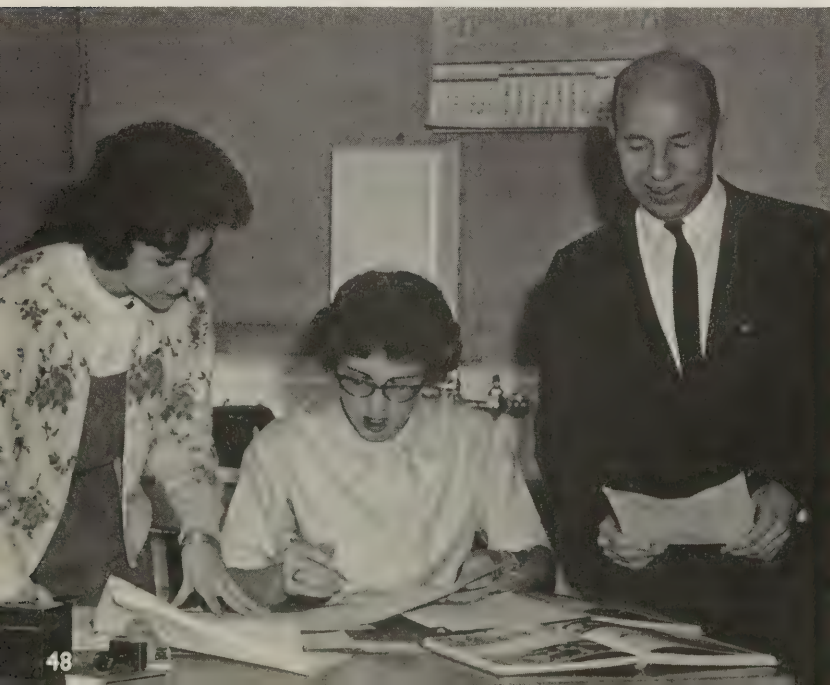

Each of us has found ways of expressing special interests and talents by joining organizations composed of others who have the same interests. Through these clubs, we have had the opportunity of developing our talents and of forming lasting friendships. As time marches on, these experiences will grow as we grow in maturity.

Student Co-operative Association

The A. H. S. Student Council promotes the type of school atmosphere that makes for a training ground in citizenship and offers students an active voice in school policies and activities.

The S. C. A. goals this year were: to maintain a school scrapbook; to establish a school blessing for lunch in the cafeteria; to assist in the orientation of the eighth grade; to improve student-teacher relationships; and to inform parents and citizens of school functions and purposes.

G. Watts, M. Ferguson, L. Mays, E. Burton, V. Crowson, S. Creasy, P. Miles practice student teaching.

The aim of the F.T.A. is to prepare members for the teaching profession. A great emphasis is put on bettering student-teacher relationships by promoting student teaching and student-teacher socials. Members of the F.T.A. lend helpful assistance to the teachers. Jeanie Robbins, Cyndy Hart, and Miss Wallace attended the State F.T.A. Convention in Roanoke in December. The club also gave a sock-hop to raise money.

Tri-Hi-Y

The purpose of the Tri-Hi-Y is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community high standards of Christian character.

This purpose was well carried out this year as the Tri-Hi-Y co-sponsored devotions over the P.A. system; sponsored Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter devotions; helped present the Christmas Assembly; gave a Christmas Toy Dance to collect toys for under-privileged children; collected food for a needy family; and presented a Sportsmanship Award to an outstanding member of each varsity team.

The purpose, to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community high standards of Christian character likewise serves as a guide for the Hi-Y.

The Hi-Y's numerous activities have included the co-sponsorship of devotions over the P. A. system, taking charge of flag raising and care for the year, preparing bulletin boards, cleaning blackboards twice a week, fixing Thanksgiving baskets for needy families, helping present Christmas assembly program, and initiating a toys-for-tots drive.

Nothing adds to school spirit more than a peppy band at the ball games and our band performed for all the home football games. More important than this is the excellent work done in presenting our Christmas and Spring concerts. Also, the band never fails to represent our school well at the band festivals.

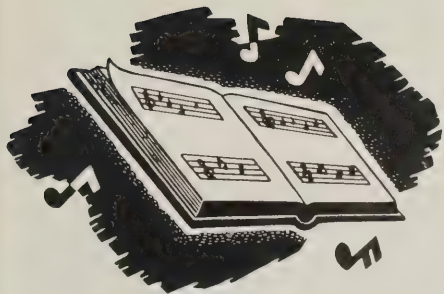

Mixed Chorus

The Girls', Boys', and Mixed choruses consist of the boys and girls in high school who are interested in vocal music. Students are afforded the opportunity to learn more about music and "to sing to their hearts content." The choruses present Christmas and Spring concerts and participate in the choral festivals.

Sports

We shall not forget the lesson we learned in good sportsmanship during this golden year. Although it was not possible for each of us to be a member of the several Colonel teams, we did seek to be good sports and cheer our school on to victory, even though the trophy was not always ours. Time carries with it the memory of good sportsmanship.

Features

Fun is always worth remembering. Dances, parades, pretty girls, handsome boys, and hard work for worthwhile goals are the things we will also remember as a part of our golden year at Altavista High School. These activities have provided that needed boost when the "going got rough." They have given us the renewed strength necessary to apply ourselves to our studies. We shall cherish the memory of the fun included in these activities in the years to come.

1962 Homecoming

Dixie Tunkel

Basketball Homecoming

Miss Burnette, Mr. and Miss Basketball, and Mr. Thompson pose after the crowning.

The 1963 Basketball Homecoming Dance was held in the school cafeteria, after the game with Brookville High School on January 19, 1963. Chappy Chapman and Bernice Newman, two of the senior basketball players, reigned over the dance as Mr. and Miss Basketball. The theme "Lollipops" was written on the cafeteria curtains with lollipops, and crepe-paper streamers and a centerpiece of balloons and a lollipop tree provided colorful decorations for the room. The dance was sponsored by the Basketball Cheerleaders and the Girls' Monogram Club.

Chappy Chapman and Bernice Newman enjoy dancing after being crowned Mr. and Miss Basketball.

That's a lollipop tree! That's why everyone's staring.

Sadie Hawkins

Dance

The Junior Class gave the Sadie Hawkins Dance on October 27, 1962. Romaine Beard and Bruce Harris were chosen as the best dressed girl and boy. Jane Newman received the most votes for Daisy Mae and Steve Mayhew was elected Lil' Abner.

Romaine Beard and Lindsay Reavis enjoy doing the twist. Etta Rorer and Bobby Simpson are in the background.

Quite often in a school year, the people who make the minor contributions to the school never receive recognition or commendation. Even though their services are important to the smooth running of the school, they go unnoticed by the student body.

The school monogram was conceived to recognize those people who excel academically, musically, athletically or who perform a welcomed service to the school. Ours is a letter, unique in design and exceptional in purpose, to be worn with pride and dignity. Those who received the Altavista High School Monogram in 1962 were:

1962 Junior-Senior Prom

Don't look so surprised! M. Ferguson, M. Garner, S. Frazier, G. Brumfield, and J. Roby are hard at work on a weeping willow tree.

Mrs. Key, B. Owens, D. Garner, S. Frazier, B. Dillard, and J. Campbell take time out for a little snack.

"Gone With the Wind," decorated in two shades of green, became a reality after months of planning. W. Oakes, D. Garner, R. Dooley, B. Dillard, and J. Elliott enjoy doing the twist to the music provided by the "Stardusters."

1962 Junior Play

In the Junior Play, A Ready-made Family, M. Campbell and A. Crawford became maniacs.

Cast members: M. Ferguson, J. Savage, G. Robertson, M. Campbell, J. Gaino, R. Shumate, D. Tunkel, A. Crawford, G. Brumfield, and J. Roby.

Career Day

Career Day took place at Altavista High School on November 8, 1962. Representatives from twenty-four colleges, four business schools, three technical schools, three nursing schools, and the U. S. Armed Forces counseled with interested students from the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior classes. Following the conferences with the representatives, refreshments were served.

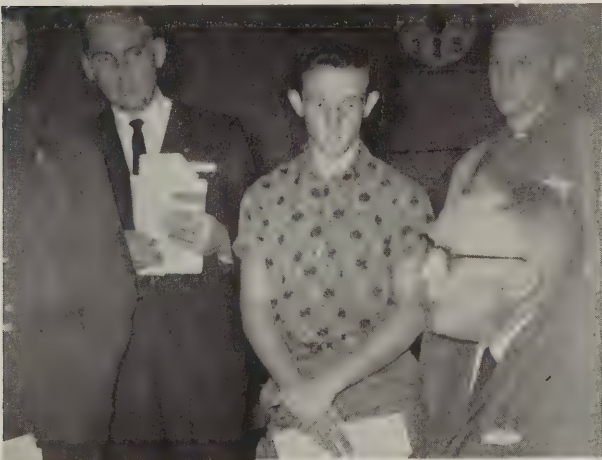

S.C.A. President - J. Elliott and Guidance Counselor - Miss Burnette discuss plans.

Information is available for all interested people.

Students - C. Hart and L. Mays help get the tables ready for representatives.

Many are interested in refreshments as well as careers.

Other Activities

Senior Class President B. Owens receives his class ring from J. Hubbard at the Ring Dance in September.

B. Trodgen and J. Savage dance at the FTA Dance at Thanksgiving.
Chaperones, Miss Wallace and Mrs. Andrew, chat with C. W. Arthur, P. Dalton, and J. West.

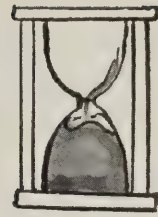

The New Year's Eve Dance given by the Beta Club is enjoyed by all. Mrs. Moorman talks with former Beta Club members, S. Cox, N. Bus, and K. Perrow.

The Sophomore Class won first place in the Homecoming Parade with its float "Our Dream."
